As a freelance teacher, your most valuable asset is your time. Next-Gen Tutor handles the repetitive conversation practice sessions — freeing you to focus on what only a human teacher can do: motivation, complex grammar, exam preparation, and high-value business coaching. Meanwhile, your students practise 3 sessions × 30 minutes every week, making faster progress than ever before.

You purchase a Starter licence, resell the seats to your existing students at the standard retail price, and earn a 45% margin on every seat — with zero extra teaching hours required.
